RESOLUTIONS unanimously adopted at the Annual Meeting of the Wesleyan Methodist Auxiliary Missionary Society of the Canada Eastern District, held at Montreal on Tuesday Evening, May 22nd, 1849. The Rev. MATTHEW LANG, in the Chair.

After an Address from the Chairman, and the reading of the Report by the Secretary, the Rev. Mr. SCOTT; the following Resolutions were unanimously adopted:—

I.—Moved by the Rev. JOHN TOMKINS, and seconded by the Rev. R. A. FIANDERS,

That this Meeting devoutly and gratefully acknowledges the goodness of Almighty God in the encouragement which he has vouchsafed to this and other Evangelical associations; not only by the prosperity of existing Missions, but also by providential openings in various parts of the world, for the more extensive prosecution of Missionary operations.

II.—Moved by the Rev. C. CHURCHILL, and seconded by the Rev. J. BORLAND,

That convinced that the utmost exertions of man to promote the cause of Christ, must prove utterly unavailing, unless rededed effectual by the Divine Blessing, this Meeting earnestly recommends, and solemnly engages to give increased attention to prayer for the more abundant outpouring of the Holy Spirit on the appointed means for the conversion of the world.

III.—Moved by the Rev. LACHELIN TAYLOR, and seconded by the Rev. M. McDONALD,

That this Auxiliary deeply sympathizes with the Committee of the Parent Institution, whose benevolent efforts are embarrassed by an accumulated debt, and pledges itself to renewed exertions for the purpose of increasing the regular and permanent income of the Society.

IV.—Moved by the Rev. J. C. DAVIDSON, and seconded by the Rev. B. SLIGHT, A. M.

That this Meeting thankfully acknowledges the services rendered to this Auxiliary and its several branches, by those persons who have laudably exerted themselves to increase the Society's income, and who have otherwise aided in sustaining and extending our important Missions, and Resolves, that the following persons constitute the Officers and Committee of this Auxiliary Society for the ensuing year.

REPORT.

The general usage of the Parent Committee requires that the Financial Statement be first presented to the Society at its Annual Meeting. In accordance with this practice the Auxiliary Committee of Canada East now lay before the friends of Wesleyan Missions, the abstract of the Financial Report for the year ending December 31, 1848, as read before the Annual Meeting, held in Exeter Hall, London, in the month of May last. It was very properly stated by Dr. Bunting that the Financial Statement "ought to be regarded with religious and careful concern." It is not the profit or loss of a commercial establishment that is under review, but the pecuniary affairs of an association of Christians, who are only anxious to save souls from death, and whose ability to do this great work depends very much on their pecuniary resources. Let then the report of monies received and expended be viewed in the light of Evangelical truth and duty.

FINANCIAL STATEMENT.

The total amount of Income, last year, from all sources, was,	104,126	19	7
The Expenditure of 1848,.....	111,492	9	3
Excess of Expenditure over Income,.....	7,365	9	8
Add the Deficiency of 1847,.....	5,993	6	5
Total Deficiency,.....	13,358	16	1

The cost of the Society's operations was less than the previous year by £3,114 8s. 5d. This diminution was not occasioned by any restriction on Foreign Stations; but by a lessened outlay in outfits and passages,—through the kindness of Christian friends, (amongst others, Mr. Cooper, of the Isle of Wight,) who afforded free passages,—and by not sending out additional Missionaries or supplying vacancies. The Committee acknowledged, with gratitude, the large amount of Christian love, liberality, self-denial, and Missionary zeal, to which expression had been practically given, during a season of great commercial depression and monetary embarrassment; but they felt it their duty to repeat, and distinctly and emphatically to state, that even with a somewhat improved income the prospect of an increased debt could only be avoided by restricting their operations, or by large additions to the ordinary receipts.

The Committee now proceed to give a brief abstract of the Report of the Parent Society's Missions in various parts of the world.

I. EUROPE.

1. MISSIONS IN IRELAND.—During the past year the Society's Missionaries in Ireland have faithfully prosecuted their important work amidst many difficulties, and their endeavours have been attended with a measure of success. Owing to continued emigration, that success, however, does not appear in the annual returns of the number of Church Members. Many of our people and their families have left their native soil for distant lands, where, it is hoped, their religious influence will be beneficially exerted, in connexion with other branches of our common Mission-family; but the cause of Protestant and Evangelical Christianity in the sister-kingdom is nevertheless deprived of their countenance and support..... The Missions of the Society in Ireland comprise Nineteen Stations. These are in different counties, and extend from one part of the kingdom to the other. Were it not for the ministrations of the Missionaries employed at those Stations, many Protestants, in the remote districts of the country, would remain in entire destitution of the Word of life. In some instances, Roman Catholics manifest a spirit of inquiry; and did not the priests impose upon them such severe restrictions, there is reason to believe that a wide and effectual door would shortly be opened amongst them. Opposition to the truth has not diminished. Although public persecution has to some extent ceased, other methods for hindering the progress of the work are too successfully employed.

2. GERMANY.—Amidst the storms and convulsions which were so generally agitating many of the Continental Nations, at the period of the Society's Anniversary last year, it was most consolatory and refreshing to the Committee, to receive tidings of a Religious Revival in one important District, embraced within the range of the political movements that were so extensively absorbing the public mind. Mr. Müller reported that a gracious outpouring of the Holy Spirit had taken place in the neighbourhood of Winnenden, (Wurtemberg,) extending to at least forty villages and localities, and that many individuals had experienced the saving efficacy of the Gospel. That faithful Agent of the Society continues indefatigably to prosecute his important labours in the country around Winnenden, aided by the occasional services of several Assistants; and the blessing of God still attends their united efforts. An addition of Two Hundred and Fifty Members has been made to our Religious Society during the year. But this progress has been effected in the face of many difficulties. Political excitement still continues; acts of violence are perpetrated; and poverty and suffering follow. An infidel and persecuting spirit also manifests itself. Threats are uttered that religion, and the Bible which teaches it, shall be extirpated; and Mr. Müller has found it necessary to watch his house in the night, lest it should be set on fire by those to whom, as "a preacher of righteousness," he has become obnoxious. Mr. Müller and his faithful people have a strong claim upon the sympathy of the Friends of the Society.

3. FRANCE.—The great political convulsions which France has experienced in the past year, have injuriously interfered with the English department of the Society's Mission in that country. In some other respects, the review of the Society's Mission in France affords matter for gratitude and encouragement. In a few instances, the Missionaries report that they have obtained greater facilities for the prosecution of their labours than they had previously enjoyed. And in several places, the promised blessing of the Great Head of the Church has signally owned the ministration of the sacred ordinances of religion. In the Capital itself, this has been the case. The Missionaries, writing from Paris, qualify their note of lamentation, by adding—"Our ministry has, however, been blessed during the year, and we are hoping that even these disastrous events will work together for the prosperity of Christ's kingdom." The prospects of the Mission at Lisieux are very encouraging. Bibles and Tracts have been extensively distributed; a larger Chapel has been opened; a regular system of visiting has been kept up; Eighteen Roman Catholics have already openly renounced the errors of Popery. Considerable apprehensions were entertained by the Missionaries, that the people under their pastoral care at Nismes, in the south of France, would be injuriously affected by the prevailing political agitation. But, happily, those apprehensions were not realised. "On the day of the late election," the Missionaries write, "a day in which the destinies of the nation appeared to be at stake, and when most of the inhabitants of this city were tossed to and fro, as on a sea of turmoil and contention, our people were quietly assembled in our Chapel, to intercede with God on behalf of their distracted country."

4.—SWITZERLAND.—The Committee regret that it is not in their power to report an abandonment of the persecuting policy which the State Authorities in the Canton-de-Vaud have, for a considerable time, pursued, in reference to all religious bodies, excepting the Established Church. But, it is matter of thankfulness that this subject, dark as it appears under one aspect, has also its bright side. The Society's two excellent Missionaries have been enabled to keep up constant intercourse with their people. God is with them in his spiritual presence, filling them with gracious consolations, and inspiring them with holy boldness; while their number has been increased by the addition of some who have only recently experienced the saving power of the Gospel.

5. SPAIN.—The Spanish department of the work exhibits indications of good. Mr. Alcoa is assiduously devoting himself to its interests, and is encouraged by the attention which is paid to the ministry of the Word. The Spanish Congregation has always, from the circumstances of the place, been fluctuating, but it has frequently been numerous during the year, and deeply serious.

II. ASIA.

1. Ceylon and CONTINENTAL INDIA.—In the Singalese District the Mission has to contend with serious difficulties, and opposition from different quarters; but a considerable measure of improvement has taken place during the year.

The most recent communications from the Tamul District, North Ceylon, present an interesting view of the state and prospects of the Mission, in its several departments. At Jaffna, the ministrations of the Missionaries are conducted in the Tamul, English, and Portuguese languages. The religious and moral state of the Church members is, on the whole, encouraging. "We look with deep interest," the Missionaries observe, "on the Native Church, and watch over its progress with constant solicitude; regarding it as the divinely-appointed means of blessing to the yet unenlightened portions of the Hindu community." Respecting the English congregation, the striking fact is again referred to, that "numerous Hindus of both sexes are statedly present at this service." The Missionaries, commenting on the encouragement afforded by this fact, say, "The supporters of the Mission-cause in England would be cheered if they could be permitted to witness the spectacle presented to us on the Lord's-day, in our English Congregation. There was a time when the English language was used only for incidental purposes on Mission-ground, but now it has become the medium of communicating the most sublime truths of Christianity to the educated Hindu." The Meetings held in the villages are amongst the most useful means of communicating religious instruction to the native community.

In the City of Mysore, a Canarese Brahmin, of high caste, has been baptized during the year, and is reported as steadily growing in grace and knowledge. The Printing establishment at Bangalore is in active operation. During the year 33,000 copies of various publications have been printed, comprising, in the whole, 922,000 pages.

2. AUSTRALASIA AND POLYNESIA.—The Society's Mission in Australia is rising in importance. By the instrumentality of the labours of the Missionaries, the foundations of a Church are being laid, which promises to furnish the divinely appointed ordinances of religion to a considerable portion of the population of the several rising Colonies in that vast country. According to the Annual Returns recently received, Ten new Chapels have been erected, and four other Preaching-places provided; the number of hearers has proportionately increased, and Six Hundred Church Members more than the aggregate number published last year, are reported by the Missionaries. The Returns from Van Dieman's Land had not come to hand. But the Committee had received intelligence of a very praiseworthy effort to reduce the Chapel debts, by which about £2,000 had been paid off.

The review of the past year's Missionary operations at the several stations in New Zealand furnishes matter for grateful acknowledgements to the great Head of the Church, and affords encouragement to continued effort. The process of colonization in that country has proved a severe ordeal to the Society's Mission, in common with that of a kindred Institution. But it is manifest that Christianity has taken a firm hold upon the native mind, and is steadily working out its beneficial results. These are seen in the elevation of character, the improved state of society, the spread of education, and increased attention to agriculture and the useful arts.

2. We regret the necessity of brevity, when the Friendly Islands and Feejee Missions are introduced, their position and prospects are so exceedingly interesting. On the first visit of Mr. Lawry to Tongatabu, the entire population was enveloped in heathen darkness, and enslaved by superstition. But when he landed there a second time, after an absence of twenty-four years, he found himself amongst a people, many of whom had become Christian; from whose dwellings, as he passed along, arose hymns of praise and thanksgiving to the One True God; who, in their religious meetings, encouraged each other to maintain entire devotedness to his service, by narrating his goodness in "calling them out of darkness into his marvellous light;" and whose King had not only embraced Christianity, but was also an eloquent and successful preacher of the Gospel. But, although a delightful change has been effected in the Friendly Islands, much remains to be done. It is a great work to raise a people from barbarism to the condition of a Chrisuan and well-ordered community;—to mould their character anew, according to the doctrines and precepts of the Gospel, to give them letters, to impart to them useful knowledge, and to stimulate them to the pursuits of civilized life. For the successful accomplishment of this object a sufficient amount of suitable agency has not been employed in this Mission; and this has contributed to retard its progress towards a state of greater maturity. The Committer, however, in humble dependance upon the Divine blessing, indulge the hope of a more rapid advancement of the work, as the result of the application of more extensive and suitable means.

IN FEEJEE, a translation of the entire New Testament into the principal Native Dialect has been finished, and considerable progress made in a Grammar and Dictionary of the language. The Missionaries are thus more fully prepared with the means of usefulness, and the people with new and abundant sources of knowledge of the best kind. In regard to the temporal affairs of the Mission some progress is reported. The Mission-premises at Lakemba have been much improved by the erection of a very substantial native building. An excellent wooden house has also been built at Vewa. Much importance is attached to the provision of good dwelling-houses, as indispensably necessary, in such a climate, for the preservation of the health of the Missionaries and their families, and with the view, moreover, of stimulating the people to exertion for the improvement of their own temporal condition.

In concluding their District-Report, the Missionaries advert to the measures which are pursued in the training of Native Agents to assist them in their great work; and record their conviction that the "spiritual state of the people throughout this District has much improved during the last three years," while their number has been considerably increased. "Many awfully-depraved hearts have been renewed by divine grace. Many whose lives were once the exhibition of everything 'earthly, sensual, and devilish,' now possess in some degree 'the mind that was in Christ,' and walk as he walked." The encouraging view which is afforded, by the Missionaries themselves, of the state and prospects of the work in Fejee, is amply confirmed by Mr. Lawry, in the judgment he has given, after careful personal observation upon the spot. The increase of means, the preaching of the pure Gospel, and the descent of the Holy Spirit, "cannot fail" says Mr. Lawry "to overcome the power of Satan, and to set up in Fejee the kingdom of our God and of His Christ. At present it appears to me that our prospects are truly cheering, and that the day is not distant when this people shall be added to the triumphs of our blessed Saviour in the island of the sea."

This Mission, however, so full of encouragement as it thus appeared to the writer, shortly afterwards experienced a most afflictive bereavement; which it was the painful duty of the Committee to announce in the very next number of the "Missionary Notices," after the publication of Mr. Lawry's Journal was completed. In the number for the present month, a lengthened account is given of the death of the Rev. John Hunt, the Chairman of the District; an individual who lived in the affection of his brethren; enjoyed the fullest confidence of the Committee; and, above all, was highly honoured in his labours by the great Head of the Church. On that detailed account, the Committee would not further enlarge; but repeat their earnest request that special prayer may be offered that even this distressing visitation may be made subservient to the advancement of the cause, for which the lamented John Hunt lived, and suffered, and died.

III. AFRICA.

1. The official communications from the Cape of Good Hope are generally satisfactory. At Cape Town, and its immediate vicinity, the work is in progress. This is especially indicated by the fact that there has been an increase in the number of communicants, and that, at every station, without a single exception, there is a greater or lesser number of individuals, who have given evidence of the beneficial effects of the teaching of the Missionaries, by becoming candidates for admission to the privileges of Church-membership.....The missions in Albany, Kaffraria, and Bechuana country present, on the whole, a very gratifying aspect. "Amidst much to grieve and depress us," the Missionaries remark, "the state of things, in reference to the progress of religion, is highly consolatory to our minds. We are much encouraged to mark so many proofs of the divine presence among us; and the opinion, entertained and expressed by us all, is that our prospects of extended usefulness were never so encouraging as at the present time."

II. The reports received from Sierra Leone are equally cheering. "Onward" is the motto of that mission. At the Gambia, the work, so frequently interrupted by the sickness of European Missionaries, promises to be more efficiently promoted by the employment of two well-trained native agents, who accompanied Mr. Badger from Sierra Leone.....In Ashanti the principle of gospel truth is successfully struggling with the sanguinary superstitions of the people. Light is gradually increasing, and making the heathen ashamed of their deeds of darkness.

IV. AMERICA.

I. The West Indian Missions have suffered severely from commercial depression, by which many of our people have been subjected to deep poverty, and consequent worldly temptations. But all is not discouraging. There are many tokens for good, and sinners are turned by the grace of God from the error of their ways.

II. The Wesleyan Missionaries continue to prosecute their arduous labours in all the Provinces of British North America. The work of God in Western Canada amongst the Indians appears to be in a very satisfactory condition. In the Hudson Bay Territory the work is retarded for want of more labourers; but there is some prospect of a reinforcement of Missionaries, and an acceleration of a brighter period for that extensive and destitute region.

III. In Eastern Canada many circumstances have contributed for some years past to discourage the Wesleyan Ministers, and those firm friends who stood by them in the hour of trial. But faith, patience, and perseverance, have overcome many obstacles, and the Lord has graciously revived his work in many places, whereby sinners have been converted, and many persons recovered from the snares of infatuation, delusion and error, into which they had unhappily fallen.

To the following survey of the Society's operations and prospects, the Eastern Canada District Committee earnestly invite the attention of their friends and subscribers in all the Circuits.

That the general state of the Society's Missions is decidedly prosperous, furnishing matter for grateful acknowledgment to Almighty God, and stimulus to persevering exertion, is a conclusion which the Annual Return warrant. The operations of the Society upon the Continent of Europe, it must be generally felt, derive additional importance from the remarkable character of the present times. The progress which the Mission in Germany has made would, at any period, have been highly gratifying; but the circumstance that it should have pleased the great Head of the Church to raise up a Religious Society of nearly One Thousand Members, with a number of Teachers to perpetuate the work, in the present religious and social condition of that country, invests the Wirtemberg Mission with an air of peculiar interest. The counteracting influence, which, as a medium of Evangelical truth, it opposes to the infidel and anarchical principles now at work in Germany, can scarcely be too highly appreciated. In France, the Society's Missionaries, it now appears, find a wider and more effectual door opened to evangelical labours among the people. The severe ordeal of persecution through which our people, with their faithful ministers, in the Canton de Vaud are passing, is evidently, by the divine blessing, made the means of improving their Christian character, and confirming their steadfastness; and hope may be entertained, on scriptural grounds, that much advantage to the cause of Christianity will ultimately result from the witness they are now bearing for the truth, by their holy living and patient suffering for righteousness' sake. Nor will the beneficial influence of the Mission in Vaud be confined within the limits of that Canton. Already it is seen extending beyond them. The visits of the senior Missionary, it appears, have been welcomed in the Valleys of Piedmont, many of whose interesting inhabitants request the benefit of his periodical ministrations; and thus the descendants of the ancient Waldenses—those noble confessors of early times—on the Italian, as well as on the French side of the Alps,—are now brought within the sphere of the Society's plans and labours. Following the geographical course marked out in the Report, the small increase of Members in India and Ceylon will not be deemed altogether unworthy of notice by those who know how to appreciate the difficulties with which Christianity has there to encounter. The large increase of Communicants, and other signs of Missionary progress exhibited in the new empire, which is rising up in Australia, are most encouraging. The cheering picture which is presented of the Society's Mission in New Zealand, viewed in connection with the confirmation of the Treaty of Waitangi, appears sufficient to awaken the hope, that New Zealand may at length exhibit the delightful spectacle of a noble aboriginal race, rescued by Christianity from the desolating effects hitherto produced by colonisation, and elevated to the condition of a Christian and civilised community. The narrated triumphs of the Gospel in dark and cannibal Feejee appear calculated to give a new impulse to Missionary zeal, by furnishing proof that no portion of the human family is sunk so low in degradation and crime as to be placed beyond the influence of Gospel grace and mercy. The feeling of discouragement which had been created by the violent interruption of the Society's plans and labours in South Eastern Africa, resulting from the last Kaffir war, is dissipated by the intelligence communicated, that the Mission in that country has been favoured with a gracious visitation from on high; that there has been an almost unprecedented religious awakening in the native Congregations, and a consequent net increase of nearly Four Hundred Church-members. The reported addition of more than Seven Hundred Communicants at the Society's Mission in Sierra Leone, must be especially cheering to those who are accustomed to regard that deeply-interesting spot as the nursery of Christianity and civilization, where the great Head of the Church appears to be preparing his chosen instruments for the more general extension of his truth, and its concomitant blessings, throughout Western Africa. Every great division of the globe, in fact, furnishes its quota of encouragement, and cause for gratitude. In Europe, in Asia, in Australasia and Polynesia, in Africa, and in America, God is manifestly with the Society, and employing it as an instrument for the advancement of his own gracious designs. The scene unfolded in this Report is generally cheering, excepting the Society's Missions in the British West Indies. After deducting the large diminution of numbers which has taken place in the Antigua and Jamaica Districts, the Committee have to report a net increase upon the whole of about Three Hundred Full and accredited Church-Members, and upwards of Five Thousand Candidates for admission into Religious Communion with the Society. Making the fullest allowance for all the trials and difficulties which anywhere exists, the encouraging results of the year's operations so greatly preponderate, as to warrant the most cheering anticipations from a vigorous prosecution of the great enterprises of Christian charity in which the Society has been called to engage.

Are the plans and operations of the Society to be adequately sustained, or shall its important Missions, now so generally hopeful and inviting, be left to languish through want of the means necessary for their support?—is the great practical question which remains for solution. If a much more considerable augmentation of the Society's Funds do not take place, the Committee of Management must be necessarily shut up to one course of action. Instead of pressing into new openings for usefulness, the present sphere of operations must be circumscribed, and ground abandoned which has been already won. A question of graver character than that which the friends and supporters of the Society are now called upon to solve, cannot be conceived. A commercial company contracts its business within narrower limits, and only temporal interests are affected by the measure; but the issue of this question will not be confined to time; they will extend to eternity. Were a Missionary Society to abandon its field of labour there are cases in which the appointed means of salvation might be wholly withdrawn from heathen people, and they and their children, and their children's children, consequently be left to perish without help. Let every individual, then, take the question suggested by this Report home to his closet and his God. Let him prayerfully consider it there in his solemn moments of meditation upon approaching death, and on the account which he must give of his stewardship before the Judge of quick and dead. Let each and all adopt this course, and all fears as to the result will at once be scattered. The practical answer to the question will assuredly be seen in the new impulse given to the movements of the Society. No sound of retreat will be heard, but the inspiring note of preparation for increased exertion will be struck, and the Society will be seen advancing with invigorated step, to new fields of hallowed enterprise, to which the finger of Providence even now points the way.

After reading the appeal contained in the foregoing paragraph it becomes a serious duty for the friends of Wesleyan Missions in Eastern Canada, to consider how they can best promote our noble and venerated Missionary Institutions. You, beloved friends, are favoured with religious ordinances which constitute a part of the great whole of our moral enterprise. You can effectually aid in the glorious work by augmenting the circuit income wherever your lot may be cast in the providence of God. Consider your advantages and means, and "and let him that is taught in the word, communicate unto him that teacheth in all good things." Your Ministers may say, "If we have sown unto you spiritual things, is it a great thing if we shall reap your carnal things? If others be partakers of this power over you, are not we rather?" "Even so hath the Lord ordained, that they which preach the Gospel should live of the Gospel." You would have occasion to lament if your Ministers were withdrawn, or your religious privileges diminished. Let then renewed exertions be everywhere made to increase the pecuniary income of the various Circuits of the District, and thereby assist in promoting the efficiency and success of the Missionary cause.

Forget not the "heathen in his blindness," and while you cheerfully contribute to support those Missionaries who labor with you, identify yourselves with the cause of Christ in distant lands. Augment your subscriptions to the Missionary Treasury. Look at the accumulated debt of the Parent Society. Shall that debt be increased, when it is known that such a result would greatly retard the progress of the Redeemer's cause? Shall we not ask, How much owest thou unto thy Lord? Consider.—Ponder well the thought. Art not thou the Lord's steward, to whom has been entrusted manifold mercies? Shut not up thy bowels of compassion—and remember the day of duty and usefulness must soon terminate in respect to each of us now called to act." From our position in the community of Churches, we cannot be exempt from great duties or great sufferings; from being extensively employed if found fit for the task; or from suffering an awful punishment, if, in the day of trial, we are found "vessels" unfit for our heavenly "Master's use." The Will of God is being accomplished; and although many "signs of the times" are wrapped in mystery, yet, one thing is plain in our case; and that is the paramount obligation of preaching, in every place, and by all our means, the unadulterated doctrines of the Gospel." May the Great Head of the Church grant us grace to fulfil our solemn obligations.
